The Museum at Warm Springs “30th Annual Warm Springs Tribal Member and Youth Exhibit” on View Through March 2, 2024

(WARM SPRINGS, Ore., Nov. 10, 2023) — The Museum at Warm Springs “30th Annual Warm Springs Tribal Member and Youth Exhibit” is currently on view. The exhibition was originally scheduled to close on Saturday, January 13, 2024, but has been extended through Saturday, March 2, 2024, due to a Museum closure during the installation of a new Heating, Ventilation and Air Conditioning (HVAC) system from Monday, December 18, 2023, through Wednesday, January 31, 2024. Staff will be working throughout the closure but the public will not be allowed into the building at this time due to safety and health considerations.

The “30th Annual Warm Springs Tribal Member and Youth Exhibit” will resume its showing when The Museum reopens to the public on Friday, February 1 and will be on view through Saturday, March 2, 2024.

The exhibit — the final signature program celebrating The Museum’s 30th anniversary (1993-2023) — showcases the immense talent and artistic excellence of Warm Springs adult and youth Tribal members. This year’s exhibit includes artworks by 20 adults and five youths in the categories of painting, drawing, mixed-media, beadwork, weaving, photography and more, in two categories of Traditional and Contemporary Art.

The exhibit is curated by Warm Springs Museum Curator and Exhibition Coordinator Angela Anne Smith (Warm Springs, Yakama, Nez Perce and Diné). Selected artworks are available for sale with a 20% commission going toward The Museum.

This year’s judge is Jewell Minnick, a proud member of the Lummi Nation in Washington and is married into the Warm Springs Tribe. She worked as a collections assistant in the early years of The Museum at Warm Springs.
